

‘Ikebana’ School

‘Ikebana’ is the traditional Japanese flower arrangement. Let us learn how to arrange flowers with harmony of nature. Your artworks will be exhibited at the drink service room B1F.

Date: April 5

Time: 15:00~16:00

Place: Drink Corner, B1F

The first 5 people will be accepted.

Master : 金岡 喜久甫

Kanaoka, Kikuho

Profile of Kanaoka, Kikuho

She is one of the most graceful and sophisticated flower artists based on Japanese flower arrangement, Ikebana. She has learned traditional Japanese art of flower arrangement in ‘Saga-Goryu’ School which was established by the 52nd Emperor Saga in 9th century. After training for more than 20 years, she obtained a license of high level professor from the School. Her works with full of art, beauty, and creativity are loved by many people.