

‘Sado’ School

‘Sado’, Japanese tea ceremony, is a Japanese cultural activity involving the ceremonial preparation of Macha, powdered green tea. Let us learn how to prepare tea with the special tools and enjoy the tea.

Date: April 4

Time: 15:00~15:30, 15:30~16:00

Place: Drink Corner, B1F

The first 10 people will be accepted.

Master: 金岡 喜久子

Kanaoka, Kikuko

Profile of Kanaoka, Kikuko:

She is one of the most sophisticated ‘Sado’ master of Japanese tea ceremony. She has learned ‘Sado’ in ‘Ura-Senke’ School which was established in 17th century. After training for more than 20 years, she obtained a license of high level professor from the School. Her performances attract many people by the elegant manner.